FAIR SURVIVOR!

Community members offered the chance to win $500.

CHOWCHILLA, CALIFORNIA, March 25, 2010- The Chowchilla-Madera County Fair is offering six lucky contestants the chance to earn the title of "Fair Survivor". The contestants will live at the Chowchilla-Madera County Fairgrounds for the entire duration of the fair, May 13th to May 16th.

Contestants will be asked to complete several tasks, such as show a pig, clean animal stalls, be a carnival barker for one hour, compete in a corndog eating contest, ride the Gravitron and many others. Contestants will not be allowed to have any money, electronic devices and must eat only fair food. The winner of the contest will be awarded the title of Fair Survivor and $500.

For rules and application, visit, www.chowchillafair.org. Applications may also be found at local businesses in town, The Chowchilla News office, and the Fair Office. Applications must be turned in no later than April 9, 2010. For more information contact Stephanie at the Chowchilla-Madera County Fair 665-3728.
